Perros de verano (Spanish Edition) Josa Fructuoso

Marina es una mujer joven, inteligente y despierta. Pero sobre todo es una mujer distinta. Procede de una familia «roja» de Murcia, y fue educada para no tener dios ni amo, para no creer en ninguna moral que no sea la que ayuda a vivir, a dudar, a viajar y ser feliz, a amar a quien se elija.

Cuando arrecian tiempos duros para la libertad —la trama se desarrolla durante la dictadura franquista—, los seres valientes han de sobrevivir al silencio, a la paz impuesta por los vencedores, y hallar el lugar de la propia experiencia, del vivir libre y auténtico.

Con un estilo valiente, capaz de evocar personajes inolvidables y retratar magníficamente una época, la autora traza con mano segura esta historia femenina que se desarrolla entre la «España negra» de los últimos años del franquismo, y los escenarios de la libertad política y personal, en Francia y París.

Quien se adentre en esta novela descubrirá, con el asombro que ofrece a veces lo cotidiano, que la ficción puede estar forjada con trazos de realidad y ser tan apasionante como ella. Hallará el retrato intenso y lúcido de una época y de unos acontecimientos que no pertenecen solo a la generación que los vivió, sino que, gracias a una poderosa escritura novelesca, alcanzan categoría intemporal, y hablan de la fuerza del sentimiento y del anhelo de vivir y amar en libertad.
