Blue Hour: Poems Carolyn Forche

"Blue Hour is an elusive book, because it is ever in pursuit of what the German poet Novalis called 'the [lost] presence beyond appearance.' The longest poem, 'On Earth,' is a transcription of mind passing from life into death, in the form of an abecedary, modeled on ancient gnostic hymns. Other poems in the book, especially 'Nocturne' and 'Blue Hour,' are lyric recoveries of the act of remembering, though the objects of memory seem to us vivid and irretrievable, the rage to summon and cling at once fierce and distracted.

"The voice we hear in Blue Hour is a voice both very young and very old. It belongs to someone who has seen everything and who strives imperfectly, desperately, to be equal to what she has seen. The hunger to know is matched here by a desire to be new, totally without cynicism, open to the shocks of experience as if perpetually for the first time, though unillusioned, wise beyond any possible taint of a false or assumed innocence."

As a university student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading significantly. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Blue Hour: Poems can make you sense more interested to read.
