Divididos: Amigos, familias, parejas, compañeros (Spanish Edition) Daniel Dos Santos

¿Qué pasó en los últimos años para que los amigos dejen de verse y todas las reuniones familiares terminen en peleas? ¿Cómo fue que colegas respetuosos se den vuelta la cara en un pasillo? ¿Quién empezó a ejercer la censura en las listas de invitados a cualquier fiesta? ¿En qué momento la identificación con una letra comenzó a dividir tan profundamente todo, al punto de devolvernos a aquel temible "a los amigos todo, a los enemigos ni justicia"? Daniel dos Santos se convierte en el cartógrafo del campo de batalla que son hoy los afectos de los argentinos, hasta hace poco nuestro mayor orgullo, la riqueza que habíamos mantenido a salvo de tempestades económicas y crisis políticas. Sus relatos provocan risas y lágrimas porque en todos sus personajes es posible encontrar una anécdota conocida, a un ex amigo o a nosotros mismos.

Una pareja de jóvenes que ven frustrado su romance cuando descubren lo que cada uno piensa de la política local. Vecinos de toda la vida separados por sus ideas sobre El Modelo. Un cumpleaños que ya no puede festejar con todos sus amigos a la vez. Un velorio que separa las aguas y no justamente alrededor del cajón. En el living, el trabajo, la cama, la facultad o la canchita de fútbol, la política mete la cola y enerva los ánimos hasta el punto de impedir la convivencia o la conversación más simple. Este libro recupera estas historias con humor y sensibilidad para reflexionar sobre lo que muchos perdieron y algunos intentan recuperar.
