The Life and Teachings of the New Testament Apostles: From the Day of Pentecost Through the Apocalypse Richard N. Holzapfel, Thomas A. Wayment

If you've wondered about such questions, you'll value the answers in this book. A follow-up to the three-volume work The Life and Teachings of Jesus Christ, this book includes fourteen chapters by faithful Latter-day Saint scholars trained in various New Testament disciplines (ancient history, Greek and Latin, Roman civilization, geography). They share upto-the-minute research on the ministry of these remarkable missionaries and leaders. The risen Lord commanded His disciples to take the message of His suffering, death, and resurrection to all the world. This book helps readers see how that commandment was fulfilled—and inspires in us a desire to be witnesses of the Savior in our day.
