5 Minute History: First World War at Sea David Wragg

If the 100-year anniversary of the Great War has left you feeling a little under-informed, the 5 Minute History series is the perfect way to read up on this major conflict in short bursts and without pages of intricate detail. A perfect overview for the uninitiated, this book will inform and educate you even if you have never read a history book in your life. The First World War is often thought of as just being a land war with men entrenched across the Western Front, but this 'war to end all wars' was won as much at sea and in the air, as it was on land. In this accessible guide, David Wragg takes you through all the major naval battles of the First World War, as well as exploring the stories of the ships and men that fought in them.
