His past may be too dark for her to handle. But then, so is hers...

Career-driven Denora James was never interested in finding love until she meets Max Greenheart, a devastatingly handsome Irish Billionaire who fills her minds with dreams that she'd never dared envision. As she's swept into a whirlwind romance, it becomes all too easy for Denora to finally forget about the past that had haunted her ever since she ran away from home so many years ago. What she doesn't know is that her past is tied to his in ways that she can't even imagine.

Max Greenheart has Denora exactly where he wants her. Fueled by an obsessive desire for revenge, he lures her into his life with the firm intention of destroying her. To Max, she is nothing more but a pawn in a meticulously-calculated plan. And yet, in spite of his hatred for everything that Denora James stands for, he finds himself growing inexplicably closer to the fiercely independent woman.

But as Max falls in love with her, will Denora ever find out that their relationship started off on lies? And what happens when she discovers that she's carrying his child?
