The Final Count (The Bulldog Drummond Book 4) H. C. McNeile

To save England, Bulldog Drummond prepares for a final showdown with his greatest nemesis

It has been years since Bulldog Drummond, World War I hero and bruising champion of democracy, saw any sign of the archfiend known as Carl Peterson. The sinister master of disguise may have gone to ground, but Drummond knows he is out there somewhere, waiting for a final opportunity to spread deadly terror across the capitals of Western Europe. He is about to get his chance.

A few years after the armistice, British inventor Robin Gaunt puts the finishing touches on a superweapon with the capacity to slaughter an entire nation in an instant. Just before he can deliver his invention to the army, he vanishes, leaving behind no trace but a dead terrier. If Gaunt's weapon falls into Peterson's hands, the criminal mastermind will have the power to bend the world to his will. Tracking him down will be Bulldog's greatest adventure yet—and perhaps his last.
