Setsuna was only five when she found out she was engaged to the much older Prince Kyoya. She prepared her whole life to be perfect for him at her parent's orders while he's been passive and quiet about the whole affair. Now that she is older and their wedding day approaches, Kyoya is determined to win her favor and claim his place as king sooner rather than later. But unexpected emotions get in the way when they finally meet. Follow the novel through the perspectives of all the characters.
