Liber Amicorum François Glansdorff et Pierre Legros (Mélanges) (French Edition) Van Den Haute Erik

Pierre Legros et François Glansdorff ont fait leurs études ensemble à la faculté de droit de l'Université libre de Bruxelles, et leurs carrières académique et d'avocat ont connu des parcours similaires et parallèles. En autres, tous deux ont été professeurs à l'ULB et bâtonniers du barreau de Bruxelles (Ordre français). Comme l'écrit le bâtonnier en exercice, « une amitié indéfectible les lie et c'est peut-être cette amitié qui les a conduits à réaliser identiquement les mêmes rêves l'un après l'autre, sans jamais prendre le risque de faire à l'autre une quelconque part d'ombre ». C'est cette proximité entre eux qui explique et justifie ce Liber Amicorum que leurs amis ont à juste titre voulu commun.

La richesse de ce volume est le reflet de leurs affinités et domaines respectifs : le droit privé pour François Glansdorff, le droit public et les droits de l'homme pour Pierre Legros ; et pour tous deux, la déontologie du barreau et la... musique.
