La transformación profunda de la cotidianidad sociolaboral del siglo xx es el objeto de este libro. En él se analiza, a través de la actividad laboral y de las relaciones sociales de producción, el paso de la supeditación del jornalero agrícola a la ansiada independencia del trabajador industrial, envuelto este último ahora en actividades informales dispersas hechas en sus casas y en pequeñas empresas. En el volumen se llega a percibir que los caminos por los que transcurre la historia del capitalismo están muy alejados de la pretensión de establecer un único recorrido estandarizado. La proto y la microhistoria nos ponen en antecedentes de las múltiples rutas que han existido y que existen para entender qué es eso del capitalismo y qué consecuencias llega a tener en diferentes lugares.
