Night of the Comanche Moon (Five Star Westerns) T.T. Flynn

Ann Carruthers had no idea what searching for her brother in the wild New Mexico Territory would mean. But what else could a girl, even an English girl not much past twenty, do when her brother vanished? How could she know that bandits, Indians and violence were things people in the territory lived with every day? Ann didn't realize how much danger she was in until the son of a Comanche chief offered one hundred horses for her. To save herself she had to pretend to belong to John Hardisty. Sure, he was a loner and a hardcase, but he could ride, shoot, and fight. And he was her one chance of survival in the lawless wilderness.
