My First Story of the First Easter Deanna Draper Buck

Here is a wonderful way to introduce your little ones to the real meaning of Easter. Beautifully illustrated and written in easy-to-understand, "read-aloud" language, this delightful book recounts important stories such as The Last Supper; The Garden of Gethsemane; Judas; Herod and Pilate; The Burial; and The Resurrection (including Christ's appearance to the Nephites in ancient America). This sturdy board book is an ideal hands-on way for young children to understand why Easter is so special to Latter-day Saints.
