Squirrel's Acorn Lizabeth Stone

Winter is coming and all of the squirrels are hurriedly gathering acorns, all but one squirrel! This squirrel only wanted the best acorn in the forest — the one hanging from the highest branch of the tallest tree! This squirrel will not compromise. This squirrel does not want quantity. Fear can't change his mind...boredom won't change his plan...squirrel pressure won't keep him from being patient! This humorous tale leaves us cheering for one very patient squirrel who teaches us the nobility of waiting for our special prized acorn!
