A Mouse in God's House Cheryl Steele

Pushing books off a desk, nibbling on cookie crumbs, and playing hide and seek are all in a day's work for Bartholomew the church mouse. Bartholomew wants to serve God, but just can't seem to get it right--or so he thinks. Adventures abound as Bartholomew learns that serving God may be just a blessing away, when a young girl discovers A Mouse in God's House. Career educator Cheryl Steele has been recognized by a variety of civic and professional organizations for her work on behalf of children. She loves entertaining her grandchildren with stories and is delighted to share her stories with readers of all ages.
