A Breath of Time Frank Warlick

Can a present-day man infatuated with a woman from Nazi Germany find a way to rescue her from the SS? Newly graduated, Steven Fredrich received a small fortune, a mysterious apparatus, and a picture and letter dated 1941 from Susanne Stennis through a Swiss bank. Fifteen years later and no closer to understanding the why and who of any of this, he finds the mate to his apparatus in a Berlin museum. Ever wanted to travel in time somewhere? For Steven, access to 1941 presents a perilous vise with a ruthless present-day German corporation coveting the technology, and the Gestapo in 1941 wanting both him and Susanne dead. Added to his concern, the Nazi invasion of Russia scheduled for May must be delayed five weeks or Russia could be conquered. Follow Steven as he embarks on a never-taken journey carried on a crest of passion and anger to a time where he must learn patience and love in the middle of world chaos. Susanne must learn trust and caring in the worst conflict to face mankind.
