Amanda is desperate for a new start, so she takes a job halfway across the country in rural Minnesota. She may have escaped her abusive past, but old wounds never truly heal. They scar.

Siblings Nate and Maggie have problems of their own. After losing their parents, they're struggling to keep the family farm afloat. Maggie and Amanda become fast friends, but work-obsessed Nate is another story. He's too proud to admit he needs a farmhand's help and Amanda is wary of his fiery temper.

To make matters worse, Amanda feels an attraction to Nate that's hard to ignore. Will they ever be able to nurture their budding romance, or will their demons prove to be too much to overcome?
