The Inspector-General Nikolai Vasilevich Gogol

The corruption of a small Russian town may finally be catching up to its leaders. The Mayor has recently learned that an undercover inspector will soon join the ranks of the town's politicians in an attempt to unravel the town's tradition of self-serving and illegal politics. The rush to cover up their many discretions suddenly comes to a stop when the Mayor learns that the dreaded inspector has already arrived two weeks ago...

This satirical play by Nikolai Vasilevich Gogol premiered after its playwright was already celebrated for his short stories. His sharp, witty analysis of government corruption remains among the wittiest satire to take on politics.
