Your Unforgettable Vacation to Hawaii's Big Island

Whether this is your first trip to Hawaii or a return visitor to the Big Island, Trip Stevens has crafted the essential guide for you, full of tips and travel hacks. Stevens takes you through the different areas on the Big Island. He shares the 'must experience' locations in an easy to read and entertaining style. You will get tips and takes on Hawaii's Big Island that no other guide book offers along with needed information on everything from golf courses to snorkeling to planning a destination wedding. Big Island Brief does not overwhelm the reader; it is free of fluff and offers pithy and factual comments and directs you to the best resources to pursue whatever you need for detailed information.

Throughout the book the reader will find any number of budgeting and cost saving tips and alternatives. He gently prods the reader to approach their Big Island vacation in a more open fashion than any travel guide I've seen. You can save hundreds in air fares, car rental fees, accommodations and in the full range of activities on the Island. Big Island Brief is jammed packed with these tips so you can afford to return again and again.

Inside Big Island Brief, you will learn the basics like when to visit and what to bring. But there are also special sections on

- what not to miss
- where to find the best beaches
- travelling with kids
- activities for seniors
- free and low-budget activities
- money saving travel tips
- where to see the sea turtles

Written in a no-nonsense fashion, Big Island Brief cuts directly to what you care about and highlights the very best that the Big Island has to offer. It is designed to quickly get you up to speed so you can quickly plan and take the vacation of your dreams.

Big Island Brief is written with Aloha and with a keen sense of Ohana for Hawaii and her people. This shows in Trip Steven's words and in his stunning photographs. Big Island Brief is a book to be read not only by the traveler but also by those that know the Big Island and want to relive treasured memories. As a potential visitor to the Big Island, be it your first or fifteenth visit, his candor alone make Big Island Brief well worth reading.

Whether you are planning that epic family vacation or a personal private getaway, get a copy of Big Island Brief and experience that incredible vacation you deserve.
