Harbinger: You Are Not The First and There Will Be More After You (Kindle Worlds Short Story)

Tom King

A forgotten, mid-level employee in a big company, Bill Abernathy is finally given a chance to get somewhere in the organization. All he has to do to get ahead is follow company orders and become a suicide bomber!

Bill works for Project Rising Spirit. His particular department is dedicated to finding and killing PRS's greatest enemy, the infamous Toyo Harada. It is Toyo in fact who singles Bill out for promotion. While slaughtering PRS troops during a failed attack, Toyo saves Bill, sending him back to his bosses with a message. PRS has never had an employee who met Harada in person, and they convince Bill this turn of events represents a big career opportunity. To demonstrate the investment they're prepared to make in Bill, they implant a nanite bomb inside him – a device that is meant to blow up the next time Bill sees Toyo Harada in person.

In addition to being a thrill-a-page adventure, Tom King's You Are Not the First and There Will Be More After You is scathing satire in the best tradition of Kurt Vonnegut and Joseph Heller's Catch 22.

Praise for Tom King: "[A Once Crowded Sky] is an exciting post-millennial conflict allegory, which echoes the terror of Alana Moore's writing for Watchman ..." - A.V. Club
