Rent To Own P.J. Nevada

Troy lives and works in Las Vegas, Sin City itself, but he wants more than glitz and fun and sex. He want a loving long-term relationship, one based on a serious connection, a complete possession of souls, so to speak. Only, finding the right guy isn't that easy. Could his perfect match possibly be his good-looking long-time—and happily straight and married—friend, John? Or what about Brett, that attractive guy he just met? And there's the model-perfect bad-boy-next-door who introduces himself as Remy Orleans, and yet whose real name is Sam Miller, as Troy learns when he goes to bail his sexy neighbor out of jail. Hmm.

It takes more than mere wanting, and even more than scorching heat and blazing passion for Troy to understand not only who he wants but who he is. Because he must, if he's to have a hope of winning the right guy.

Reader Advisory: This story has graphic sexual language and scenes—no closed bedroom doors (or other rooms) here!
