Textbook Of Emergency Medicine: 1 & 2 Suresh David

This book is part of the LWW India publishing program. This program is developed for the Indian market working with Indian authors who are the foremost experts in their respective fields. Our Indian authors do research and teach at the most respected Indian medical schools and academic hospitals. Textbook of Emergency Medicine (Volumes 1 and 2) is a comprehensive and contemporary exposition of the vast array of disorders and emergencies that might present to the emergency department of a hospital. This book adopts a global purview and emphasises the diverse challenges faced by doctors, nurses and other ancillary health care professionals while practising Emergency Medicine. The sections on Pre-Hospital Care, Emergency Nursing, Disaster Medicine and Research Methodology in the book render this the new authoritative reference resource for all. The highlight of this book is the collective wisdom of 250 authors spanning across the globe from Alaska to Aukland. It is thus the first textbook that exhibits a truly international perspective of the principles and practice of Emergency Medicine.
