El botones de Kabul (Ficcion) (Spanish Edition) David Jimenez

Una desgarradora historia de amistad, amor y lealtad en un país sumido en la pobreza y la violencia

Inspirándose en su experiencia como corresponsal de guerra, David Jiménez recrea personajes y acontecimientos reales para escribir una desgarradora historia en la que la amistad, el amor y la lealtad son llevados al extremo en un país sumido en la pobreza y la violencia.

La silueta semiderruida y abandonada del Hotel Intercontinental se alza sobre el valle de Kabul como símbolo de un pueblo herido por décadas de invasiones y conflictos. Pero ni los bombardeos ni la salvaje dictadura de los talibán impiden que sus empleados acudan puntualmente a trabajar, decididos a mantener abierto el establecimiento más emblemático de la ciudad y sostener la esperanza de un eventual regreso de los buenos tiempos a Afganistán. La llegada del huésped americano Frank Goldkamp y su amistad con el joven botones del hotel serán el preludio de una nueva guerra que unirá los destinos de los dos protagonistas y les llevará a emprender un viaje a lo más profundo de la condición humana, su luz y su oscuridad.
