Jack Morgan has finally been able to reconnect with his daughter, Maddy, after a lengthy separation. But he is still not having any luck gaining her trust. Then Bryony Lester comes into their lives and enables both Jack and Maddy to slowly open up little by little. Sure enough, Bryony gets attached to them, but things start to get really complicated when she and Jack develop feelings for each other. How far will they let their feelings take them? And at what cost?
