Siete años después del inicio de la crisis financiera, este libro da testimonio del fulgor y muerte de las cajas de ahorro españolas. Un terremoto inmobiliario las sacudió y han seguido un nuevo camino de bancarización, facilitando su entrega a los operadores financieros privados. En la reconversión, gran número de entidades se reflataban con dinero público mientras salían a la luz errores de gestión, créditos dudosos, sueldos de escándalo de sus directivos... presentando el conflicto financiero casi desde una perspectiva bélica. La segunda recesión, provocada por la falta de financiación a las pymes, ha llegado a tildarse de hito insólito en el sistema financiero español desde la guerra civil de 1936. Lo que hace pensar que nos encontramos ante una crisis de valores, pues se está intentando revestir de una falsa apariencia financiera el origen de esta gran recesión, cuando la causa de la crisis no es financiera sino política.
